About Me

I'm a full-stack developer with experience building modern web applications using HTML, CSS, Tailwind CSS, JavaScript, React, Vite, Next.js, Node.js, Express, and MongoDB. I'm an intermediate developer still growing fast, improving my backend skills, and building real-world projects.

I'm motivated, quick to learn, and open to opportunities where I can grow, contribute, and work with a great team. Let's connect!
